LIBRARY RECEIVES AMBROSI SCULPTURE

Mario Santin, a member of the Class of 1924, presented a sculptured bronze hand by Gustinus Ambrosi entitled, "Die Hand des Bildhauers", to the Edward Miner Gallaudet Memorial Library on Tuesday, October 26. Ambrosi, a Viennese sculptor, has been deaf since the age of five.

Mr. Santin, who personally received the sculpture from his friend, Ambrosi, during a recent European trip, also brought with him photographs of a number of other works by the artist. Sculpting in bronze and marble, Ambrosi passionately portrays a number of subjects.

Mr. Santin's most recent gift has been placed in the Edward Miner Gallaudet Room in the Library along with a bronze reproduction of a marble piece also done by Ambrosi, "Femme et Nostalgia", which was given to the Library by Mario Santin in April, 1958. Mr. Santin has also contributed a collection of poems by Ambrosi and a highly treasured book of the Russian manual alphabet.

ON INTERPRETERS

The Registry of Interpreters of the Deaf is compiling a referral list of interpreters who are available for off-campus interpreting to meet the growing demand.

If you are available or know of anyone who would be interested, please contact Emil Ladner, Director, at 587-1788 or Judy Bortner at the Alumni-Public Relations Office.

PUBLIC INFORMATION AND ALUMNI MERGE

On October 21 the Board of Directors approved combining the Office of Public Information and the Office of Alumni Relations into a single Office of Alumni and Public Relations to be directed by Jack Gannon. A Youth Relations Program, under the direction of Frank Turk, is also part of the new set up.

At the present time, the old Alumni and Public Information staffs are in their same office and Jack can usually be found somewhere on the porch between College and Chapel Halls.
